

Melbourne Law Firm Becomes Charter Member of Life Care Planning Law Firms Association

Melbourne, Florida ---- William A. Johnson of the law firm of William A. Johnson, P.A. in Suntree has recently been approved as a charter member of the Life Care Planning Law Firms Association.

The Life Care Planning Law Firms Association (LCPLFA) is a not-for-profit entity whose mission is to develop life care planning as a holistic legal practice that anticipates and provides legal and care advocacy services to clients as their circumstances and health care needs change.

Members of the association are committed to helping clients and their families navigate the long-term and health care system and advocate for good care during their loved one's journey through the elder care continuum.

The LCPLFA seeks to educate its members about developing life care planning standards, practice tools, and systems to help them better serve their clients.

William A. Johnson has been practicing law since 1991. In 1993, he founded William A. Johnson, P.A. which provides legal services in Estate Planning, Medicaid Planning, Life Care Planning, Guardianship, Incapacity Planning, and Probate and Trust Administration. In 2004, Johnson became Board Certified in Elder Law, a distinction that is the highest level of recognition by the Florida Bar of the competency and expertise of attorneys practicing in Elder Law.

Johnson joins a select group of attorneys who are charter members of the LCPLFA—these members serve on the boards of national, state and local organizations serving the elderly, disabled and their families.
